ABOUT

ANNA WHITMORE

Artist Statement

In nature a trickle of water can wear down rock, a tiny breeze can move thousands of leaves, and one small seed can create a forest. Nature honours the small. I create original art that does the same.

My Process

Each piece is created in my home studio in Minden, Ontario. Every piece is hand-drawn with archival ink, carefully mounted on a birch panel, and meticulously coated with resin. Because each piece is hand-drawn, mounted and resined, they are never perfect but always beautiful.
